OVER THE CONTINUED DEPREDA-TIONS OF THE MOB.

Uneasy Feeling Prevailing Throughout the Metropolis-Estimates of the Damage.

LONDON, February 10 .- Noon .- Thus far to-day there has been no renewal of rioting in this city. A dense fog prevails and favors the congregation of roughs. Small crowds of losfers are mbled on the street corners. AN UNEASY PEELING THROUGHOUT THE METROPOLIS, 2 P.M.-Col. Henderson, the head of the metropolitan police force, has been in conference to-day with Mr. Childers, Home Secretary, in rela-tion to the riots of Monday and Tuesday. An uneasy feeling prevails throughout the metropolis in consequence of the events of the past two Hundreds of genuine workingmen who are out of employment are wandering about Trafalgar square this afternoon. They have a very dejected appearance.

ANOTHER MOR MARCHING TOWARD THE CPLY.

3 P.M.-News has just been receiveed in the city that a mob of roughs, which had assembled at Deptiord, are marching toward the city, and that they are smashing windows and wrecking the fronts of houses along the route. A panic pre-vails among the residents of that por-tion of the city which the mob is likely to traverse, and shop-keepers are closing their establishments. The police and troops are in readiness to prevent the mob from assuming the proportions of that of Monday, and from committing similar excesses.

DEPREDATIONS BY THE MOB. 3:30 P.M.—The Deptiord mob has reached the Hope Exchange, in Southwark, nearly five miles from the starting point of the march. The mob was enermously increased by constant was enermously increased by constant accessions during its progress north. All the shops along the route were closed. The destination of the Dept-ford rioters seems to be Trafalger Square. The mob is resting in Southwark, between London bridge and Blackfriar's bridge. The police have been ordered to secure possession of all the bridges spanning the Thames and to resist all attempts on the part of mobs to cross. The police at this hour hold all the bridge approaches and are preparing to resist an attack. The authorities have warned eli tradesmen doing business in the Strand, Cockspur street, Pall Mall and Regent street to expect disorder to-night and to immediately close their shops and to take steps to protect their property. The West End already has a funereal appearance. The De; t ord mob on its way toward the The mes awang through New Kent road and Newington cause-New Kent road and Newington causeway. They sacked several small shops slong the way. They stopped at the mammoth establishment of Wm. Tarn & Co. This establishment covers the ground from and including Nos. 5 to 21 on New Kenc road and 164 to 173 Newington causeway, and is devoted to trade in tinen, silk, men's and women's clothes, books and shoes, carpets, ironware, bedding, furniture, etc. The building was under police protection, but the mob overran the officers, tion, but the mob overran the officers, sacked the the store, and when they retired left the building badly wrecked.

ESTIMATES OF THE DAMAGE. The estimates heretofore made of the losses inflicted by the mob on Monday appear to have been greatly too small. The official estimate places the amount of the damage at £80,000. The various Socialistic and labor reform societies threaten to have a monster demonstration at Hyde Park next Saturday, to be attended by contingents of laborers from the country. Shops are being closed and barricaded everywhere throughout the city.

ORGANIZED TO ATTACK STORES AND BANKS.

5 P.M.—The police have been informed that the Deplford mob is composed of a large number of roughs, who have organized to attack city emporiums and banks. Such stores as remain open in the city at this hour have their windows closed and barred and are ready to close their doors at a moment's notice. Groups of anxious people stand about in the streets, discussing the situation. The newspapers are printing extra editions, and these are eagerly bought. At this hour the fog is increasing.

THE MOR DISPERSED.

6 P.M .- The Deptford mob has dispersed. The streets are thronged. No conflict with the authorities has yet occurred. A Socialist meeting is to be held this evening at Cumberland market.

SOCIALIST MEETING.

At 5:30 o'clock, two and a ha'f sours before the time announced for he sesemblage, over 1000 men were in the ground waiting to attend the meeting. The crowd was being con-Antly augmented by accessions from Trafsigar Square. The cavairy from Albany barracks and large bodies of police have been ordered to remain in readiness to preserve order at the Cumberland meeting.

A MOVEMENT

has been inaugurated to secure a meeting of all the London members of the House of Commons, both Liberal and Conservative, to devise measures for the immediate relief of the distress in London. It is proposed to have the meeting depute a strong committee to urge the Cabinet to action in the matter.

MEETING OF WEST END TRADESMEN. A meeting of West End tradesmen was held this evening for the purpose of giving expression to their indigna-tion at and want of confidence in the authorities for permitting the riot.
Mr. W. H. Sm th, member of Parliament, presided. Mr. Pickett stated that the less raused by the rioters amounted to 2000. Several members of Parliaments. of Parliament addressed the meeting. Mr. Smith said he sympathized with genuine distress. He condemned, however, the present mode of agitating, and appealed to workman to re-sent the interference of the Socialists as detrimental to their own interests. He said he had seen Mr. Childers, the Home Secretary, and had given him notice that he would question the government on the subject in Parliament. A resolution was adopted to send a memorial to the Home Secretary and the subject in the Home Secretary and the subject in the secretary and the secretary tary asking him to receive a deputation of tradesmen for a conference.

MR. KELLY. men's organization, accuses the Socialisis of causing the recent trouble, and lays part of the blame on the police officials, who, he says, were perfectly aware of the intentions of the Socialists. Mr. Kelly on Monday distributed 2000 circulars among the workingmen urging peaceful proceedings. He threatens that unless the police proceed against the Socialists the work- pounds, sugment memerics will endeavor to punish them. Kelly had his eyes blackened and was otherwise badly bruised in the fight yesterday.

HYNDMAN INTERVIEWED. The Standard this morning prints the report of an interview with Hyndman, the Socialist leader. He denied that bad harvest or over population were the causes of the distress pravailing among the working people, because simillar social troubles existed in America and France. The real cause was universal—the fact that producers had no control over the amount paid for production. Hyndamount paid for production. Hynd-man said that he and his associates would continue to hold labor meetings, and there would soon be a demonstra-tion of East End tradesmen for the purpose of sgitating the subject of compensation. The only law on the subject dates from the reign of Edward I, and is difficult of application. WARRANTS FOR THE ARREST OF THE LEADERS. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of several Eccialists, believed to nave been leading spirits in the riots Monday. These warrants were placed in the hands of the Scotland Yard detectives, who expect to have the arrests all made by midnight.

THE MEETING ABANDONED. By 8 o'clock a crowd that num-bered many thousands gathered in Cumberland Market. The lowest criminal classes of London were represented by a strong contingent, in-tent upon harawing and annoying the police. At 9 o'clock Hyndman, Wil-liams and other Socialist leaders ap-peared, and were greeted with up-roarious shouts of welcome. They held a short consultation and resolved to abandon the attempt to hold a meeting to-night because, as they said, the dense fog that prevailed prevent-ed their distinguishing true, unem-ployed workingmen from loafers. The announcement was then made that the meeting adjourned until Thurs-

AS THE CROWD BLOWLY DISPERSED cheering for the Socialist leaders, the disorderly element again manifested itself. The police were jeered at and stoned, but easily drove their assail-ants from the grounds. Three reg-ments of cavalry and a battery of artillery were confined in the barracks all day, in readiness to sally out at a moment's notice. The vigorous action of the police of South London compares favorably with the inaction of the police at the Trafalgar Square meeting Monday. Mounted consta-bles, armed with cutlasses and revolvers, assisted the police on foot in dispersing a mob of 5000 near Elephant Castle Tavern. A gratifying feature was the fact that many small tradesmen and numbers of bona fide workingmen joined in assisting the police to repulse the rioters, who, dreading an encounter, quickly dis-persed. The police had been informed early in the day of a conspiracy of thieves inhabiting lodging-houses to make South London the starting-point of a pillaging expedition. Precau-tions were accordingly taken to prevent disorders.

THE PANIC SUBSIDING Midnight.—The city is quiet. The crowds disappeared by 10 o'clock. The streets are deserted and the panic is subsiding. The scare is without a parallel in the history of London. Tens of thousands of desperate men gathered in the streets, and only needed some one more reckless than themselves to commit the wildest exthemselves to commit the wildest ex-

Stepp of Salem, Dent county, who for seven years past has been the rovernment gauger and storekeeper at Apple Creek, Cape Girardeau county; David Crites, alias Little Dave, and Henry Crites, both members of a numerous family of dismembers of a numerous family of digtillers in Southern Missouri. The Crites distillery was selzed yester-day, and the officers found 1650 gallons of whisky stored in the warehouse. An officer was placed in charge. Store keeper Stepp is charged with failing to make correct returns to the government, and with failing to mark the barrels which it was his duty to do. Died of a Broken Heart. New York, February 10 .- At about midnight Mrs. Kate Parker, forty-two years old, applied to the police for assistance in the case of her sixteensistance in the case of her sixteen-year-old son, Paul, who, she said, was in the habit of returning home late every night intoxicated, creating a disturbance and abusing her. De-tective Blissest was detailed to accom-pany Mrs. Barker home and arrest her son. When they reached the corner of First avenue and Sixth her son. When they reached the corner of First avenue and Sixth street the woman stopped suddenly, placed her hands over her heart, and, with a cry of grief, fell to the side-walk, where she exclaimed passionately: "Oh, God, my heart is break-ing." The woman was carried back to the station-house, and died on the way thither. Her son Paul was shortly afterward arrested. When he saw the dead body of his mother he threw himself upon it and expressed great corrow, saying that he was the cause of it all.

Fied to Canada.

CHICAGO, February 10.— A Daily News special from White-House, O., says: "The residents of this village have been greatly startled to learn that Mayor O. G. Wales has fied to Canada because of irregularities in his business. Besides being the agent of the Wabash railroad at this point, he had a pension agency. He recently proamounting to $1400. It is sileged that he charged her $300 commission. The legal rate is $10. When she went to collect the money it is said Wales had to give notes for $400. These were indorsed, and when they came due Wales told the lady that the indorsements were worthless. He is said to have also charged David Warner a commission of $300 on a pension of $1400, which his widow is now trying to collect. A warrant has been issued for Wales's arrest for extorting a com-pensation above that allowed by law.

Revolting Case of Depravity. Chicago, Li., February 10.—A revolting case of depravity was revealed when Charles Richardson and his wife, Lizzie, were taken before a justice yesterday by an officer of the Hu-mane Society. The Richardsons were charged with cruelty to their five children. The testimony of officers and neighbors showed that the youngest children had been sent out to beg. The two oldest, a toy and a girl, worked in large stores down town. The girl received $2 a week. The children were obliged to give their money to their parents, who at once invested it in whisky. One of the little girls, it is said, was turned out of doors one night and told never to return. She went to the neighbors, and the case was reported. The court fined the father $100 and the mother $50. The latter will go to the Martha Washington Home. The father goes to the Bridewell, and the children go to the Home for the Friendless.
